

Case Study

UK Based Banking Client Gets Solution with Our Full Stack Experts

Client Overview:

UK Based Banking client wanted to improve their customer experience by developing web-based applications. Bank mainly focus on commercial, wealth, personal and global banking groups. It offers a wide range of financial services like debit and credit cards, loans, Online, mobile, tablet banking, Mobile check deposit etc.

Problem Statement:

They wanted a refinery system which can help them to refine the data and can manage their assets based on the requesters.

Solution:

Our Full Stack experts leverage its experience and analyze the requirements which leads in providing the well-defined architecture to meet customer expectations and build a user interface as Web based application with React.js. Which is integrated with Backend APIs to provide cost effective solutions to drive their journey towards refinery system.

Client Benefits:

- Refining of data with user interface
- Manage all their assets directly through user interface
- ease of use to handle policies and accesses for requesters